Description (section events):

Private Banking: Serving the needs of wealthy!

At this annual, we will bring together private banks, wealth managers and financial advisors to brainstorm strategies on how to build and operate a successful HNW business, how to benefit from the latest economic development and how to improve the client experience in CEE, SEE and CIS's future private banking environment.

This conference was produced in a unique way, directed by industry professionals from the most respected private banks in Europe. As a result, the conference program reflects actual trends and challenges which professionals are facing these days in the real world. The program provides an interactive and highly practical guide for all industry peers.

This conference is focused on serving the needs of wealthy, best practice and ROI in private banking. What else distinguish this event from similar events?
